

THOUSANDS OF ARMENIANS MASSACRED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, yesterday.

Between ten and fifteen thousand Armenians have been massacred in Syria, principally in the Adana vilayet. The Government urgently instructed the Vali to suppress disturbances and deal vigorously with the ringleaders.

The situation at Tarus has improved. The reactionaries in the districts devastated spared neither women nor children.

The massacres everywhere were conducted with the greatest violence and accompanied by shouts of "Not a twig of an accursed race shall be suffered to live."

LONDON, yesterday

The latest Constantinople advices state that the Government have unconditionally accepted the Sherket's demands, including the formation of a Cabinet and the election of a President of the Chamber.

Advices from Salonica state that the Sherket has proceeded to the front, and will direct investment operations. It is rumoured that the Sultan is preparing for resistance.
